

A perfect day at Versailles

Unlimited priority access to all of the starred (*) activities below is free for you and the person who accompanies if your card is DUO.

If you come with additional non-members, it is possible to purchase them tickets on the château's website <http://billetterie.chateauversailles.fr> or, at the last minute, in locations close to the château, including the Office of Tourism of Versailles and the Brasserie du Musée (for practical information and prices, see our FAQ at www.amisdeversailles.com). Please note that two visitors accompanying the card holder can also benefit from priority access.

Chateau access is free for children but access to the musical fountain shows is paying for children above 6 years old. (The reduced price for children is 7€. Tickets can be purchased at the entrance to the gardens or in advance online <http://en.chateauversailles.fr/prepare-my-visit-/single/tickets-and-rates/billets-et-tarifs/les-grandes-eaux-1-en> )

Details of priority access : For priority access, you may advance to the beginning of the line with the security guards next to the sign "Entrée A" in the courtyard of the château. There is no priority access to get an audio guide or for the two Trianon palaces.

Attention : With the heightened anti-terrorism precautions at Versailles, all visitors must wait in the security line at the entrance to the palace courtyard. Please account for this extra time, only after which will the membership card grant you priority access.

We wish you a wonderful visit of the chateau!

On busy days, especially Tuesdays and weekends, we recommend that you plan to arrive at the opening of the château at 9am to enjoy the Hall of Mirrors and the Grand Apartments before they become crowded. The Grand and Petit Trianon and Marie-Antoinette's estate don't open until 12pm.
